

DivorceAdvisor™

Divorce is one of life's most critical transitions. The decisions you make during your divorce will impact your future, and the future of your family for the rest of your lives.

The challenge is that, with so many choices, it can be difficult to know how or where to start.

DivorceAdvisor: Providing a Clear First Step on your Path to a Better Future.

Ron Ousky created DivorceAdvisor to guide divorcing couples on how to create a divorce plan that will allow them to achieve their most important goals. The simple, step by step approach is designed to help you and your spouse create a clear plan before moving forward.

What will happen at our DivorceAdvisor Planning Session?

The 3-hour Planning Session consists of an introduction, separate private interviews, combined discussion, a short break, and a 75-minute divorce planning session. During the divorce planning session, we will:

- Outline the options that we think will work best for you;
- Make specific recommendations for the option we think will work best and our reason for our plan;
- Provide general estimates for both the anticipated cost and time it may take to complete your plan; and
- Assist you and your spouse to make specific decisions about the next steps.

How can I determine if we are suited for the DivorceAdvisor Program?

The DivorceAdvisor works best alongside families who are committed to divorcing in a manner that allows them (and their children) to move on to achieving their most important life and long-term goals.

The DivorceAdvisor works best with people who:

- Focus on big picture goals
- Have a willingness to become optimistic
- Empathize (or have a willingness to develop empathy)
- See their responsibility for their future
- Are concerned with more than just the tangible issues

How is a DivorceAdvisor different from a Divorce Lawyer?

A DivorceAdvisor will serve as a resource for a couple contemplating divorce. Rather than representing one individual, the DivorceAdvisor will help both parties achieve their goals by guiding them in understanding their options at every stage of the process.
